

Bracknell Forest Natural History Society

A society for everyone interested in nature and its conservation

COMMUNITY CONSERVATION IN ACTION

Monday 18th March 2024 – 7.30pm

In the Recital Room at South Hill Park

You'll know conservationist and naturalist Dr Sean McCormack from a host of TV programmes such as Autumnwatch, The One Show and BBC Earth.

His YouTube channel for Ealing Wildlife Group, which he set up in 2016, has been immensely successful in showcasing local wildlife and the conservation projects the group organises in West London, attracting almost 37,000 subscribers and achieving a viral sensation video with 14 million hits.

We're pleased to be welcoming Sean to South Hill Park, where he'll be giving us the inside track on how he has engaged the local community in all that the Wildlife Group does, safeguarding and improving habitats within a mainly urban environment.

BFNHS Members: £1 VISITORS WELCOME: £3

Cash at the door - no need to book in advance

South Hill Park is on Ringmead, Bracknell RG12 7PA
